

Center for the Study of Genocide and Human Rights

CGHR presents

Keynote Film Screening of Award-winning Documentary and Live Q&A

A River Changes Course

Youk Chhang
Director, Documentation Center
of Cambodia

Tuesday, October 29 6-9pm

Dana Room
4th Floor, Dana Library
Rutgers University, Newark

Co-sponsor: Documentation Center of Cambodia

GESTES
ET ATTITUDES

39

Image Courtesy of Chen Mekong Archives

Youk Chhang is Director of the Documentation Center of Cambodia. He is a survivor of the Killing Fields and received the Truman-Reagan Freedom Award from the Victims of Communism Memorial Foundation in 2000. He was also named one of Time magazine's "60 Asian Heroes" in 2006 and one of the "Time 100" most influential people in the world in 2007 for his stand against impunity in Cambodia and elsewhere.